IMPORTANT NOTICE ABOUT YOUR APPLICATION FOR INSURANCE

The Prudential Insurance Company of America
Pruco Life Insurance Company

The words “you” and “your” refer to the primary proposed insured and policyowner or applicant, if other than the primary proposed insured.

This notice tells you about the information practices we will employ in evaluating your application for insurance. Information about Prudential’s information policies and practices relating to its customers and former customers is provided in our Privacy Notice.

UNDERWRITING INFORMATION AND PRACTICES

We review information about you to decide if you’re eligible for coverage. Your application is the primary source of this information. We may also obtain information about you from the following other sources: any required medical examination; the MIB, Inc.; and doctors, hospitals, health care providers, pharmacy benefit managers, consumer reporting agencies, publicly accessible sources, or any other organizations or persons who have information about you or your mental or physical health. In addition, we may request that an investigative consumer report be prepared in which information about your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and mode of living is obtained through interviews with your neighbors, friends, associates, acquaintances, or others who may have knowledge concerning such items of information. You may ask to be interviewed in connection with the preparation of the investigative consumer report.

Your eligibility for coverage will depend on the information we collect, the application process we use to collect that information, and our underwriting risk assessment. Eligible proposed insureds who submit information through our telephone interview process may qualify for an accelerated underwriting program. This program is available for select products and could result in coverage being issued without a medical exam, which would otherwise be required. We strive for consistent results in our underwriting decisions regardless of the application process used. However, differences can occur, which could affect your premium. For example, if the insurance exam provides information not otherwise available, your policy costs could be higher than they would have been if underwritten through our accelerated underwriting program. It’s important to review any questions you have about our underwriting process with your financial professional.

DISCLOSING INFORMATION

We will treat any information we obtain or have obtained about you as confidential. We may disclose information we have collected as follows: to affiliates or third parties that perform services for us, or on our behalf, or that are providing service to you; to your doctor; to insurance regulators; to law enforcement or other governmental authorities under limited circumstances; for actuarial or research studies; or as otherwise permitted or required, with or without your authorization, by applicable law. Prudential or its reinsurers may make a brief report to the MIB, a not for profit membership organization of life insurance companies, which operates an information exchange on behalf of its members. If you apply to another MIB member company for life or health insurance coverage, or a claim for benefits is submitted to such a company, the MIB, upon request, will supply such company with the information in its file. Information about MIB may be obtained on its website at www.mib.com.

Upon receipt of a request from you, the MIB will arrange disclosure of any information it may have in your file. If you question the accuracy of the information in the MIB’s file, you may contact the MIB and seek a correction in accordance with the procedures set forth in the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act. MIB’s contact information can be found on their website at www.mib.com.

Prudential, or its reinsurers, may also release information in its file to other life insurance companies to which you may apply for life or health insurance or to which a claim for benefits may be submitted. A consumer reporting agency that prepares a consumer report may keep the information it has gathered and disclose it to others.

We may share your personal information with affiliates so that Prudential companies can market their products and services to you, unless you opt out of such sharing. Unless you agree otherwise, we do not disclose your information to other companies for them to market their products and services to you.

YOUR RIGHT TO INFORMATION

If we do not issue the contract you requested, we will tell you and explain the reasons for our decision in writing. You have the right to make a written request within a reasonable period of time to receive additional, detailed information about the nature and scope of any investigative consumer report we request. You also have the right to request a written summary of your rights as a consumer from the consumer reporting agency that prepared the report. A copy of any consumer report we obtained about you will be provided to you. Upon your request to the address below, we will provide you with our notice of information practices, which is a more detailed description of our information practices and your rights. You have the right to make a written request to us at the address below for access to personal information we have about you or to request that we correct, amend, or delete any information we have on record about you.

California Disclosure Regarding The No-Lapse Guarantee

Important Notice

This policy is guaranteed to stay in force for a number of years as long as you have paid at least as much as the required premiums. This is called the No-Lapse Guarantee.

Even though it contains a No-Lapse Guarantee, this policy may provide nonforfeiture benefits (such as cash surrender values) which are less than those that would be provided if the No-Lapse Guarantee were issued as a separate policy (for example, as a term policy). However, the premiums for the term policy might be higher than those for the No-Lapse Guarantee in this policy.

When considering the purchase of this policy, you should consider the value to you of higher nonforfeiture benefits versus the level of the premiums required to keep your insurance coverage in force.

As a convenience to me, I authorize Prudential to make the fund transfer(s) from my account listed above. By signing below, I understand and agree that:

For Initial Premium E-Pay

- If a withdrawal request is not honored by the financial institution, Prudential will not consider the payment to be made.
- For initial premium E-Pay, Prudential will process this withdrawal request immediately and it cannot be revoked.

For Monthly EFT

- I may cancel the authorization at any time by giving Prudential prior written notification up to three business days preceding the scheduled date of the transfer.

REPLACING YOUR LIFE INSURANCE POLICY OR ANNUITY?

Are you thinking about buying a new life insurance policy or annuity and discontinuing or changing an existing one? If you are, your decision could be a good one -- or a mistake. You will not know for sure unless you make a careful comparison of your existing benefits and the proposed benefits.

Make sure you understand the facts. You should ask the company or agent that sold you your existing policy to give you information about it.

Hear both sides before you decide. This way you can be sure you are making a decision that is in your best interest.

We are required by law to notify your existing company that you may be replacing their policy.
