IMPORTANT NOTICE TO APPLICANT/BUYER REGARDING ACCELERATED DEATH BENEFITS

The benefits provided by this accelerated death benefit are not intended to provide, and will never provide, long-term care insurance, nursing home insurance, or home care insurance. Disclosure for Term Life Insurance Policies

If you are applying for term life insurance benefits, this disclosure is a brief description of the Accelerated Death Benefit for Terminal Illness Rider and its effects on your policy. This disclosure is not an insurance contract, but only a summary of the coverage provided by the rider. There is no premium charge for the rider.

Benefit Description

If the insured is diagnosed as having a Terminal Illness while the policy is in force, you may make a one-time election to receive an accelerated Terminal Illness benefit up to $1,000,000 or 80% of the policy's death benefit, whichever is less. A Terminal Illness is a medical condition that, within a reasonable degree of certainty, will result in the insured's death within 12 months or less from the date a physician signs the statement of proof of terminal illness.

We will reduce the Terminal Illness benefit by 6% of the requested acceleration and a $100 charge.

Effect of the Accelerated Terminal Illness benefit on the policy

When we pay the accelerated Terminal Illness benefit, the policy will continue with a reduced face amount and a reduced premium.

Disclosure for Universal Life Insurance Policies

If you are applying for universal life insurance benefits, this disclosure is a brief description of the Accelerated Benefit for Terminal Illness Rider, the Accelerated Benefit for Chronic Illness Rider, and their effects on your policy. This disclosure is not an insurance contract, but only a summary of the coverage provided by the riders. There is no premium or cost of insurance for these riders.

The sum of all requested accelerations under the Terminal Illness Rider and the Chronic Illness Rider may not exceed the lesser of $1,000,000 or 80% of the specified amount as of the date of the first requested acceleration.

Benefit Description - Accelerated Benefit for Chronic Illness Rider

If the insured is diagnosed as being Chronically Ill while the policy is in force, you may elect to receive an accelerated benefit.

Chronically Ill means that within the last 12 months a licensed health care practitioner has certified that for a continuous period of at least 90 days, the insured is: (a) unable to perform (without substantial assistance from another person) at least two activities of daily living; or (b) requires substantial supervision to protect himself or herself from threats to health and safety due to severe cognitive impairment.

A requested acceleration may be of any amount you choose up to the maximum. There may be tax consequences of accepting an amount above the amount that would be tax qualified under the Internal Revenue Code. The sum of all requested chronic illness accelerations may not exceed the lesser of $500,000 or 80% of the specified amount as of the date of the first requested acceleration.

You may elect to receive the Chronic Illness benefit more than once, and there must be at least 12 months between acceleration requests. In contrast, you may elect to receive the Terminal Illness benefit only once. If you elect to receive the Terminal Illness benefit, the Chronic Illness benefit is no longer available.

We will reduce the Chronic Illness benefit by a charge equal to 6% of the requested acceleration multiplied by the insured's life expectancy in years, a $100 charge, and the pro-rated amount of any outstanding loans.

NOTICE TO APPLICANT

NOTICE TO APPLICANT REGARDING REPLACEMENT OF LONG-TERM CARE INSURANCE OR LIFE INSURANCE INCLUDING ACCELERATED DEATH BENEFITS

According to information you have furnished, you intend to lapse or otherwise terminate existing life insurance or long-term care insurance and replace it with a life insurance policy with an accelerated death benefit to be issued by United of Omaha Life Insurance Company. Your new accelerated death benefit coverage provides 30 days within which you may decide, without cost, whether you desire to keep the coverage. Please note that your underlying life insurance policy may only provide for a 10-day period during which you may decide, without cost, whether you will keep the coverage. For your own information and protection, you should be aware of, and seriously consider, certain factors that may affect the insurance protection available to you under the new coverage.

This accelerated death benefit is NOT Nursing Home, Home Care, or Long-Term Care Insurance, and it is not intended or designed to eliminate your need for that coverage. There are no restrictions or limitations on the use of the accelerated death benefit proceeds.

If you want long-term care insurance, you should consult with an insurance agent licensed to sell that insurance, inquire with the insurance company offering the accelerated death benefits, or visit the California Department of Insurance Internet Web site (www.insurance.ca.gov) that provides information regarding long-term care insurance.

If you want to replace existing coverage with life insurance that includes an accelerated death benefit, you should note the following:

(1) Receipt of accelerated death benefits may be taxable. Prior to electing to buy the accelerated death benefit, policyholders or certificate holders should seek assistance from a qualified tax adviser.

(2) Receipt of accelerated death benefits may affect eligibility for public assistance programs, such as Medi-Cal or Medicaid. Prior to electing to buy the accelerated death benefit, the applicant/buyer should consult with the appropriate social services agency concerning how receipt of accelerated death benefits may affect that eligibility.

You may wish to secure the advice of your present insurer or its agent regarding the proposed replacement of your present coverage. This is not only your right, but it is also in your best interest to make sure you understand all the relevant factors involved in replacing your present coverage.

If, after due consideration, you still wish to terminate your present coverage and replace it with new coverage, be certain to truthfully and completely answer all questions on the application concerning your medical health history. Failure to include all material medical information on an application may provide a basis for the company to deny any future claims and to refund your premium as though your coverage had never been in force. After the application has been completed and before you sign it, reread it carefully to be certain that all the information has been properly recorded.

Notice of AIDS Virus (HIV) Antibody Testing and Consent for Testing

United of Omaha Life Insurance Company
Mutual of Omaha Life Insurance Company

To evaluate your Insurability, the Insurer named above (the Insurer) has requested that you provide a sample of your blood and/or other bodily fluids for testing and analysis to determine the presence of human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) antibodies. By signing and dating this form, you agree that this test may be done.

The HIV Antibody Test — Description and Purpose of the Test

A series of tests will be performed by a licensed laboratory through a medically accepted procedure to determine whether you may have been infected with the HIV virus. This test is not a test for acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (AIDS). AIDS is a disease you get when HIV destroys your body's immune system, and can only be diagnosed by medical evaluation.

An initial ELISA blood test will be done. If the initial ELISA test is positive, then a repeat ELISA test will be performed. If the second ELISA test is positive, a Western Blot test will be conducted to confirm the positive ELISA test results.

Meaning of Test Results

Positive HIV antibody/antigen test results do not mean that you have AIDS, but that you are at significantly increased risk of developing AIDS or AIDS-related conditions. Federal authorities say that persons who are HIV antibody/antigen positive should be considered infected with the AIDS virus and capable of infecting others.

A negative test result means no antibodies to the HIV virus were found. Because of varying incubation periods, absence of HIV antibodies does not mean that you have not been infected with the virus. Absence of HIV antibodies does not mean that you cannot get the virus in the future.

Potential Uses and Disclosure of Test Results

Like all medical information, HIV test results are confidential. An insurer, insurance agent, or insurance-support organization is required to maintain the confidentiality of HIV test results. However, certain disclosures of your test results may occur, including those authorized by consent forms that you may have signed as part of your overall application.

Your test results may be provided to affiliates, reinsurers, employees and contractors of the insurer in relation to the underwriting of the insurance application. In addition, a positive result from a blood, urine or oral specimen test may be reported to the Medical Information Bureau, a national insurance data bank, as a nonspecific abnormality determined by the testing of blood or oral specimen.

Limitations

The HIV antibody test is extremely accurate. However, like any medical test, this one is not 100% accurate. In rare instances the test may be positive in persons who are not infected with the virus.

Additionally, the test may occasionally be negative in persons who are infected with HIV (a false negative), especially when the infection occurred within the previous three to six months.

Counseling

Many public health organizations have recommended that before taking an AIDS-related test, a person seek counseling to become informed concerning the implications of such a test. You may wish to consider counseling, at your expense, prior to being tested. Public health authorities urge that everyone become educated about how to protect themselves from HIV infection. If you have questions or concerns, you may wish to consult your own physician or your own health care provider. A list of counseling resources is provided for your information.

Notification of Test Result

If your test results are negative, no routine notification will be sent to you. If your test results are other than negative, you are entitled to that information. Because a trained person should deliver that information so that you can understand clearly what the test result means, you are asked to list your private physician so that the Insurer can have him or her tell you the test result and explain its meaning.

The HIV Virus

Many people who are infected with the HIV virus have not developed any symptoms, while others have had relatively minor illnesses. The most serious form of illness caused by the virus is Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS), which involves loss of the body's natural immune defenses against disease.

AIDS is a life-threatening disorder of the immune system. The virus is transmitted by sexual contact with an infected person, from an infected mother to her newborn infant, or by exposure to infected blood (as in needle sharing during IV drug use). Persons at high risk of contracting AIDS include males who have had sexual contact with another male, intravenous drug users, hemophiliacs, and persons who have had sexual contact of any of these persons.

The only reliable way to tell if you are infected with HIV is to get tested. This is because many people with HIV do not experience symptoms for years after the initial infection or have symptoms that are very similar to symptoms of other illnesses. AIDS does not typically develop until a person has been infected with HIV for several years. A person may remain free of symptoms for years after becoming infected. An infected person has a significant chance of developing AIDS over the next 10 years.

The AIDS Antibody Test

HIV antibody tests are the most appropriate test for routine diagnosis of HIV among adults. Antibody tests are inexpensive and very accurate. The ELISA antibody test (enzyme-linked immunoabsorbent) also known as EIA (enzyme immunoassay) was the first HIV test to be widely used.

Many public health organizations have recommended that before taking an AIDS-related test, a person seek counseling to become informed concerning the implications of such a test. You may wish to consider counseling, at your expense, prior to being tested.

Public health authorities urge that everyone become educated about how to protect themselves from HIV infection. If you have questions or concerns, you may wish to consult your own physician or your own health care provider.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, D.C. 20552.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your "file disclosure"). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
- a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
- you are the victim of identify theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
- your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
- you are on public assistance;
- you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.
- In addition, by September 2005 all consumers will be entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for additional information.
- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for an explanation of dispute procedures.
- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need – usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.
- You may limit "prescreened" offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited "prescreened" offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt-out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-567-8688.
- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. For information about your federal rights contact:
